Rio Arriba County To Host Legislators

RIO ARRIBA COUNTY, New Mexico, October 2, 2013— Rio Arriba County (RAC) will be hosting legislators on Thursday, October 3 at 7 a.m. at La Cocina Restaurant to present legislative priorities for fiscal year 2014-2015 (FY14-15). Thus far, state representatives who have confirmed for the meeting include: Nick Salazar, Stephanie Richard-Garcia, Debbie Rodella, Carl Trujillo and State Senator Richard Martinez.

“This type of meeting is a long time coming,” said County Manager Tomas Campos. “We want legislators to be aware of our priorities and know that we are listening to our constituents and that County directors sincerely care about the services they provide to the public.”

Several department directors, elected County officials and County management will also be present.
